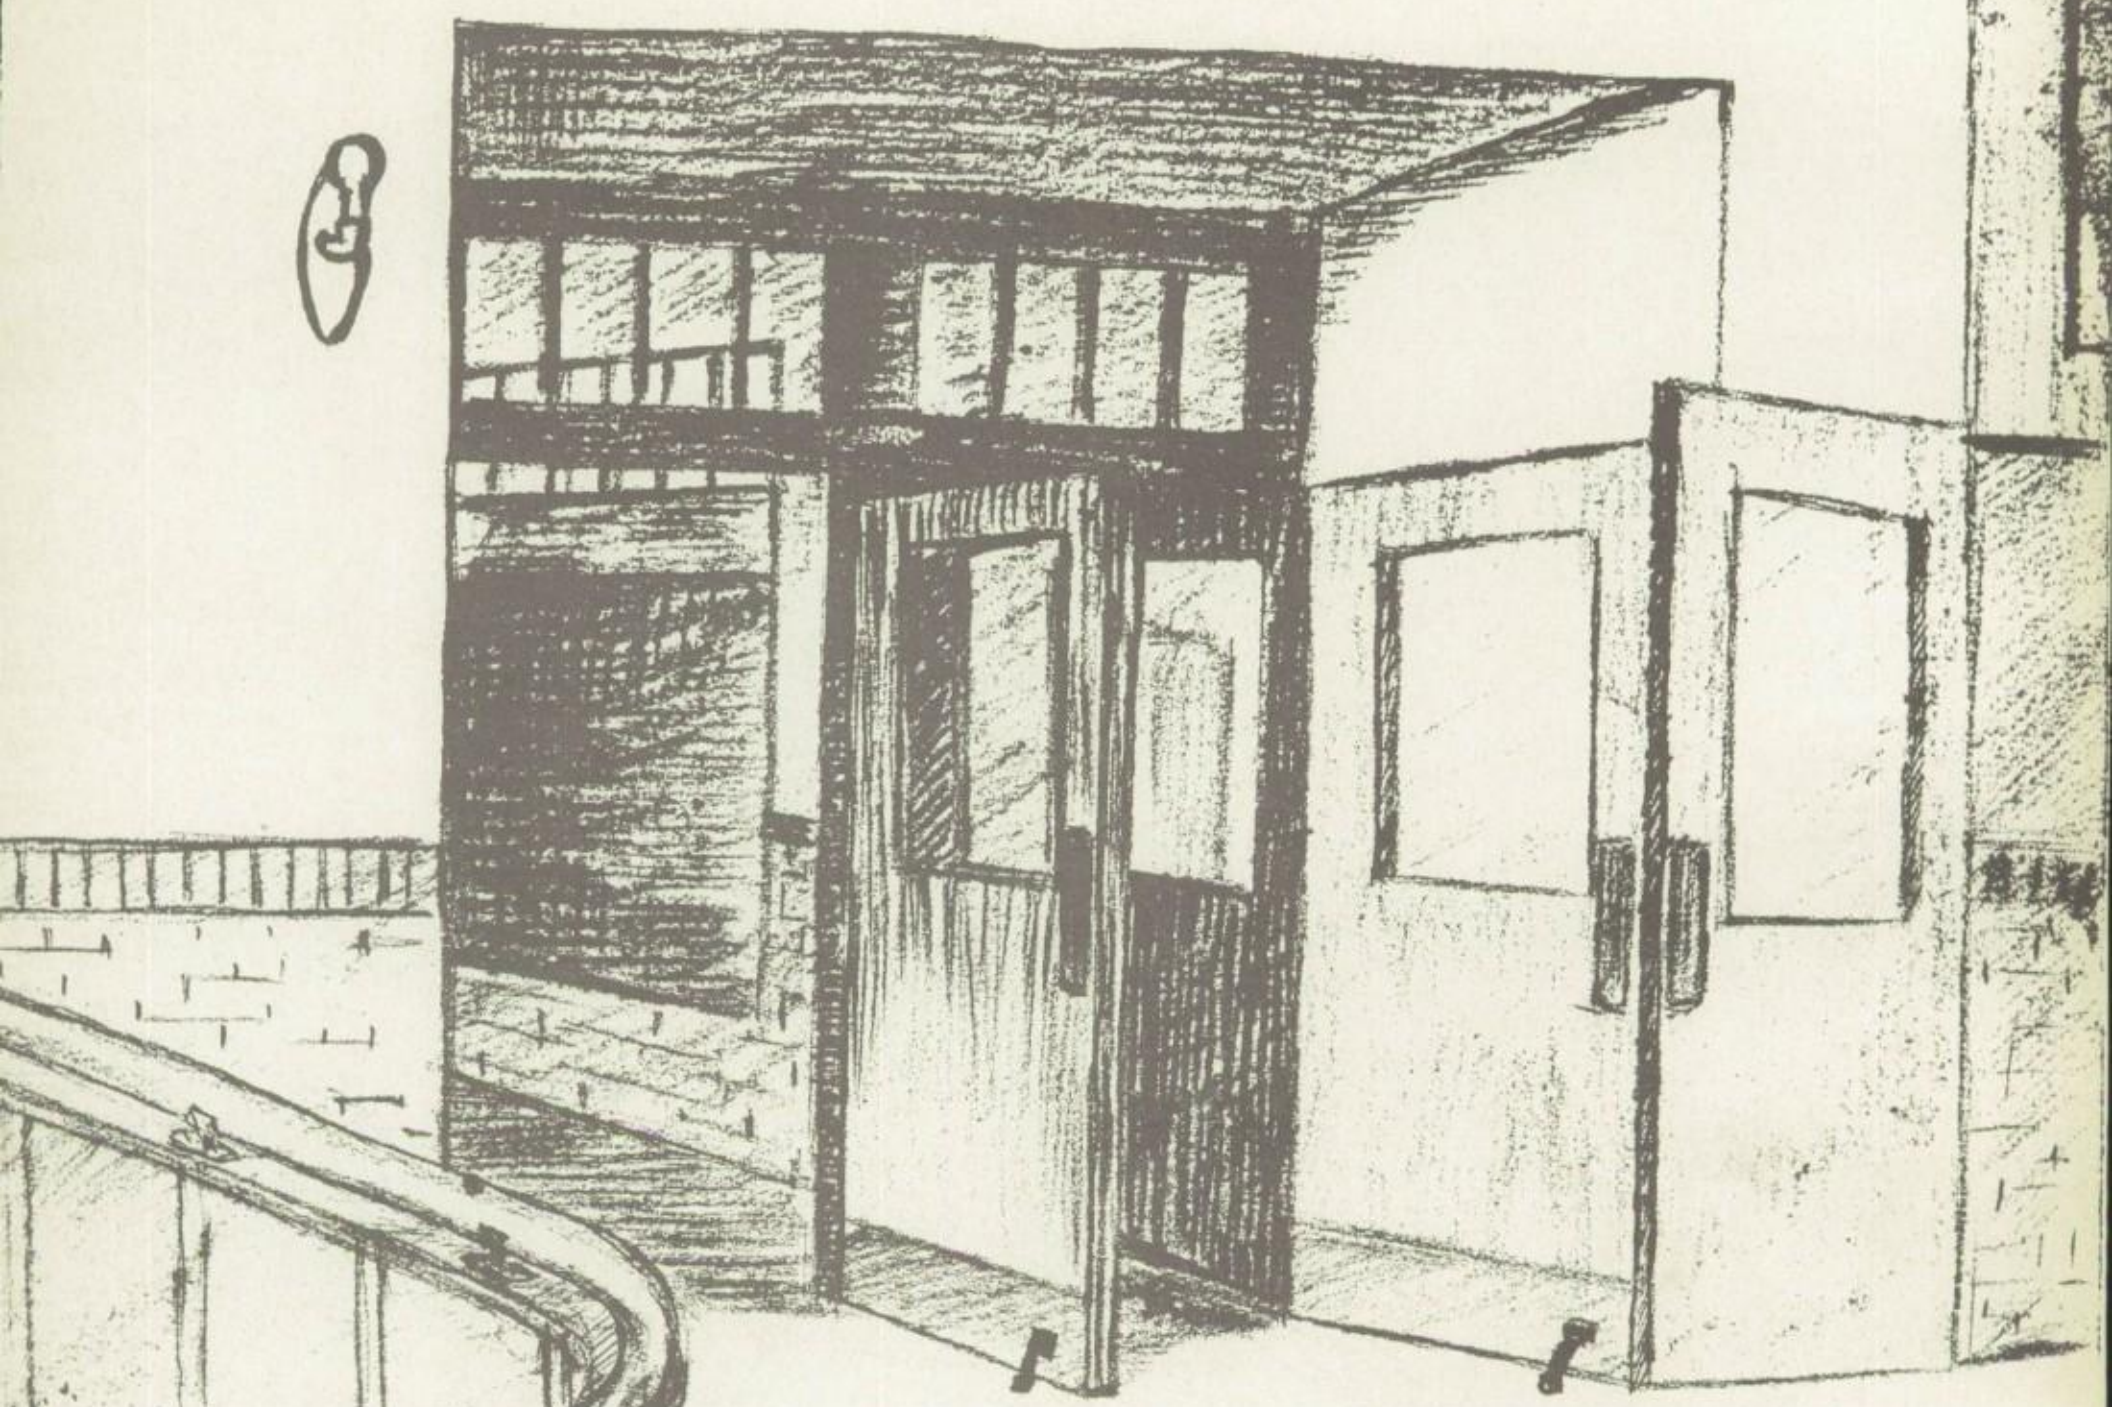
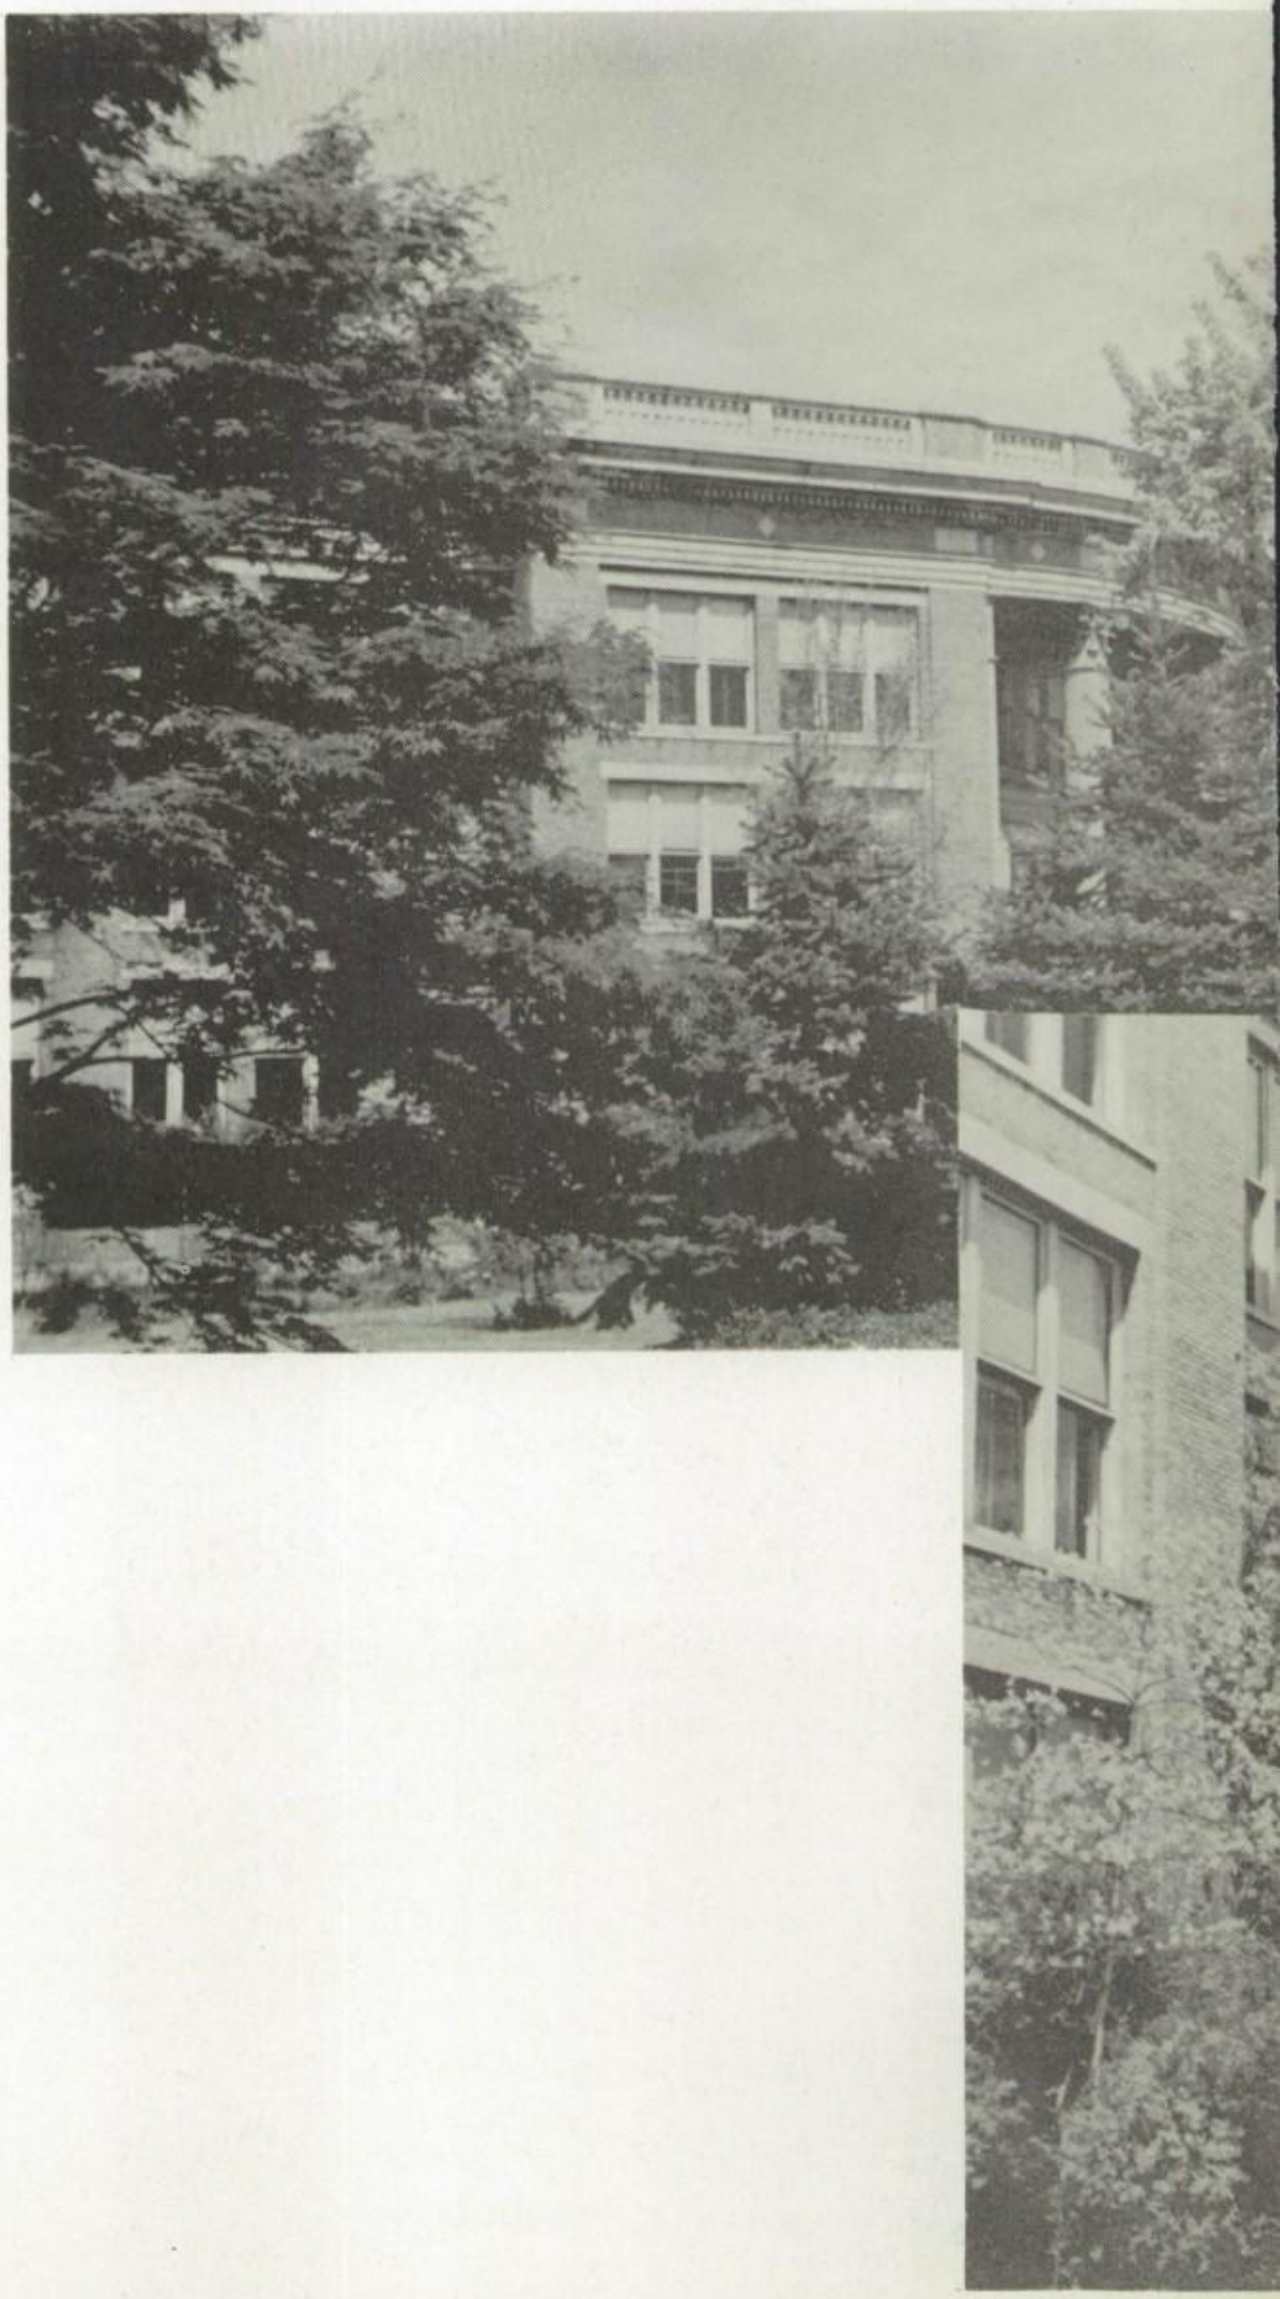
THE 1954 COLOPHON



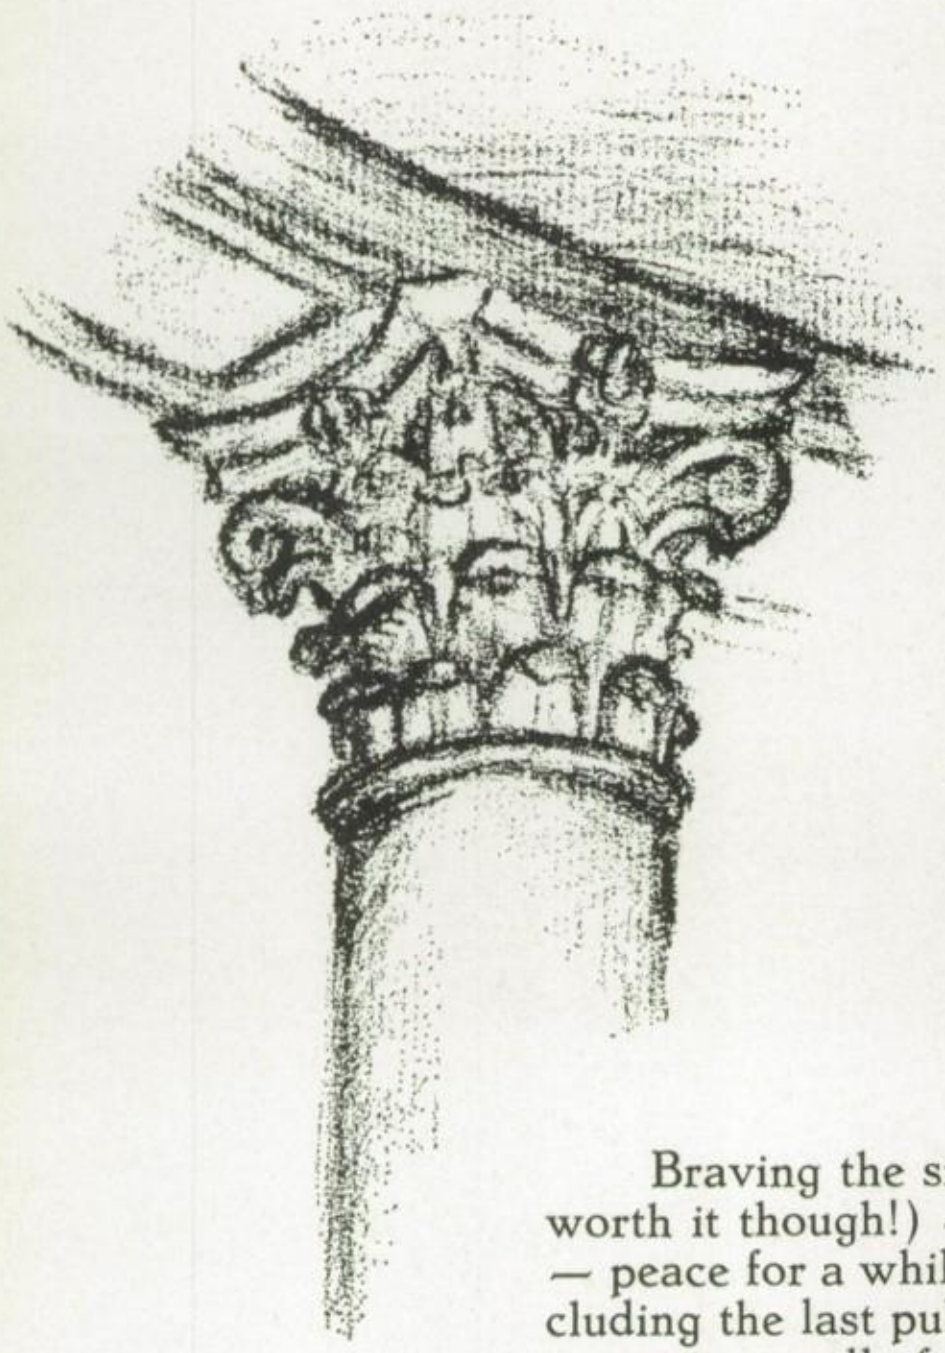
The Colophon

Published Annually
by the Senior Class of
Elmer L. Meyers High School
Wilkes-Barre - Pennsylvania



Foreward

Our aim in this, our Colophon, is to leave a pictorial impression of our years at Meyers to those who are to follow us. May this Colophon serve as a pattern for future classes in the hope that their Colophons may be as full of happy memories as we believe ours to be.



Reminiscing

Braving the snowstorm for the Luzerne game (it was worth it though!) — gobs of glamour at the Pigskin Prom — peace for a while — a wonderful Christmas program including the last public appearance of the Modern Choir — cramming madly for midyears — a hard-fighting basketball team — loads of fun at the dances after the games — a resolved wrestling team — Seniors beaming proudly at the Sweetheart Swing — laughs and suspense at the Senior Play — at last! Spring vacation! — baseball and track make their Spring debuts — staying out late for Amateur Night rehearsals — laughs at Class Night and fun on the outing — excitement of the Junior Prom — smiles and tears on Moving-Up Day — the ultimate goal; commencement — that's Meyers.

Dedication

Mr. Charles H. Davis

We dedicate this 1954 Colophon to our wonderful teacher and friend, Mr. Charles H. Davis, and extend our thanks for the prominent part he has taken in our education. His understanding ways have endeared him to the hearts of the whole student body. We wish much luck and success to our former Modern Choir and Band Director. To him, who has done so much to make our school years successful and happy, may there come long life and the finest future anyone could wish.

The Graduating Class

The Class of 1954

MR. JAMES J. McGOWAN

In Appreciation

Keen sense of judgement, witty remarks and a rollicking sense of humor are all phrases describing our friend Mac, an unsurpassed advisor to the Senior Class. His frank advice and calm assurance will long be cherished in our memories. We, the Class of 1954, extend our deepest appreciation for his wise counsel and sincere companionship in all our endeavors.

IN MEMORIAM

The death of our classmate and friend, Gertrude Polanowski, is an occurrence which stands out in sharp contrast to the happy events of this school year. Her sweet personality and kindly ways had been a cheerful aspect throughout the days. She will long be remembered by the Faculty, Senior Class and Student Body as a true friend to everyone and a great asset to Meyers High School. We regret her loss to the Class of '54.

ALMA MATER

From hall and class thy students come,
From fields thy warriors bold.
To raise with honor, glory, love,
The loyal blue and gold.
So now, to dear old Meyers High,
We proudly stand and sing,
While clear against the azure blue,
Thy honored name we fling.

Chorus
Loud and long
Let us raise the song of glory
As thy banners of truth
Proudly fly.
On through life, in our hearts
We will cherish
Steadfast forever,
Meyers High.

When we must leave thy guiding hand,
To take our place in life.
Then we will keep thy honor clear
Through all our joy and strife.
And when the hand of memory
Rolls back time's gathering haze,
We'll come once more, as now we do,
To sing again thy praise.

CLASS SONG

We the class of Fifty-four on this our parting day,
Are going forth into the world, each in our separate way,
Our feet may never tread again the halls we love so dear,
But happy schooltime memories we always will revere.

These presious days at Meyers High will soon come to an end
We'll say farewell to those we love, to teacher, and to friend.
Our colors proud, the blue and gold, may they wave on forever
And lead us on to greater heights and be forgotten never.

CHORUS

Hail all hail to Meyers High and the Class of '54
We'll strive to keep the banner high
Of those who've gone before.

Words:Carol Phillips, Joyce Snyder
Music: Barbara Donlin

FAREWELL SONG

Through all our years at Meyers High
We little dreamed the time so nigh,
When we would leave your friendly halls,
Your rooms and your protective walls.

Yet now at last the hours arrive,
With mem'ries we'll fore'er revive.
And as we bid a last farewell
To you, in praise our voices swell.

CHORUS

Meyers, we'll remember you,
Your proudly waving gold and blue.
In future years we know our might
Will ever flow from your great light.

Music: Dorothy Brown
Words: Sara Golden
